"Uncle" John Roy died this morning about 1 a. m. He was the oldest man in this part being 87 years of age. He was an honest and very industrious man and lived in a way that made every body his friend.

Mr. David Gadberry had his finger mashed two months ago, and as it has never healed, he had it amputated Saturday by Drs. Hammond and Blair.

Londo Meece had a fine patch of watermelons. Somebody else got the melons a few nights ago. Londo still has the patch.

The annual scramble for trustee is past, and now comes the scramble for the chairmanship. Truly there must be many in each. Our school laws are an abomination. Ancient Rome had a premium on dishonesty.

We are greatly pleased to see the editor make a start after the primary law. Your influence through your valuable paper is enormous, and when you unlimber your guns against such a farce as the primary or road law, many will fall in rank by your side. Why not dry it?

Jamestown.

A great many Russellites will attend the Columbia Fair, the largest number on Thursday.

Mrs. Judge Williams is visiting her relatives in Bourbon county.

Kirby Robinson, Jo Collins, Elmer Hawkins and Bill Guffey have joined the regular army.

Mr. E. L. Stearman and Miss Ion Barger were united in marriage a few days ago. They will reside in Texas.

Mr. Lilburn Phelps will leave for Columbia in a few days where he will remain until after the September term of circuit court.

The defeated candidates for nominations took their medicine gracefully.

The sale of the property of the late A. H. Holt was satisfactory.

Every body in Russell county is glad that clever Robert Antie was nominated for the State Senate. The race between him and J. O. Ewing will be interesting.

Additional Locals.

There was a general fight in the colored settlement last Sunday night about 9 o'clock. John Jones, Woodson Baker, Lisle Bailey, Shack Bailey and Candy Allen participated. There were shooting and cutting, but the story will not be told until the parties are brought before the court.

Several social items go over until next week.

For Sale.

My farm of 130 acres, near Montpelier and eight miles from Columbia. Good 7 room dwelling, outbuildings medium, splendid orchard and ample timber. Good, productive land, 30 acres being creek bottom. Good community, close to school and church. Price reasonable and terms inviting.
